

Reporting

Within the system several reports can be created which give detailed information about your event. Reports like how much tickets have been sold, who bought those tickets, what price was paid, which discount code, what specific customs fields were filled in or what payment method was used. All this information and more can be found in the reporting section of the system.

FAQ

- How do I create a order report
- How do I create a custom fields report

